What Shall Be Done ?

NO WORK NO BREAD

Children crying. Father stays away until he thinks the children are asleep.

In one town the Patriotic League is providing 6,000 meals each day, but NOTHING FOR THE REFUGÉE CAMPS.

MUST THEY DIE ?

" I visited 400 families in one camp and found sickness in 399 ; only one family without any sickness."

" I saw several women on the hill-side picking wild spinach ; this they boil, making a soup with nothing else added."

SO THEY EXIST!!!

THE National Church League recommends:

THE STORY OF THE ENGLISH PRAYER BOOK.

By Canon DYSON HAGUE, D.D. 3s. 6d.

"We very heartily welcome a book that does not hesitate to deal frankly and fairly with historical facts and gives readers a true narrative in a clear and forcible manner of the historical and doctrinal causes that have led to our possession of a book that may either be enriched by additions that will help our worship or deformed by departures from the Truth it echoes from the pages of Holy Writ. We hope that the volume will have a wide circulation among all who wish to understand what the Prayer Book teaches and why it has its present doctrinal orientation."—The Record.

A SACRAMENT OF OUR REDEMPTION.

An enquiry into the meaning of the Lord's Supper in the New Testament and the Church of England.

By Rev. W. H. GRIFFITH THOMAS, D.D. Second edition. Paper cover, 9d.; Cloth, 1s.

THE CATHOLIC FAITH.

A Manual of Instruction for Members of the Church of England.

By Rev. W. H. GRIFFITH THOMAS, D.D. 50th thousand. Cloth gilt, 2s. 6d.; Cloth limp, 2s.; paper cover, 1s. 6d.

"The plan of the work is simple, but wonderfully comprehensive; the style is as far as possible non-polemical, and the facts and arguments are presented with great clearness and force."—Church of England Newspaper.

ENGLISH CHURCH TEACHING ON FAITH, LIFE AND ORDER.

1s. 6d. 22nd thousand.

Edited by Canon R. B. GIRDLESTONE, who contributes the section on the Faith of the English Church. The section on the Life of the Church is written by Bishop H. C. G. MOULE, and that on the Order of the Church by Bishop T. W. DRURY.

SCRIPTURAL AND CATHOLIC TRUTH AND WORSHIP; or, the Faith and Worship of the Primitive, the Mediæval and the Reformed Anglican Churches.

By Canon F. MEYRICK. Popular edition, 1s. 6d.

"Contains much valuable information which can only be obtained by consulting large, costly, and out-of-the-way books of reference. The book is a remarkable and valuable one, written with care and knowledge."—The Record.

THE ENGLISH CHURCH AND THE REFORMATION.

By Rev. C. SYDNEY CARTER, M.A. Second edition. 16 illustrations. 3s. 6d.

"The author in the second edition of this book has carefully revised the original text in the light of the most recent knowledge and research. The book is an extraordinarily interesting one and is written with care and knowledge."—Church Gazette.

The Life and Work of John Wycliffe

by
CANON DYSON HAGUE, D.D.

Price 3s. 6d. (Post 4d.)

"Dr. Dyson Hague has made full use of all the recent contributions to the literature of John Wycliffe, and has given us a useful book. The whole effect is excellent, and has been pronounced by many of those who have read it before publication to be the best of Dr. Dyson Hague's works."—The Church Gazette.

BISHOP OF LIVERPOOL
by
CANON J. B. LANCELOT, M.A.

Price 3s. 6d. (Post 4d.)

"... Canon Lancelot has provided within this convenient-sized volume a very adequate biography and has included a number of excellent portraits and other photographs. There are considerable quotations from the Bishop's journals, and from his letters, which reveal the man and his essentially spiritual nature far better than many pages of description could hope to do."—The Life of Faith.

PREACHING BY AID OF PICTURES TO PATIENTS AT LEH HOSPITAL

Its people are a scattered folk; apathetic, sunk in superstition; not very ready to hear the Good News of the Kingdom.

A "Gospel Inn" is greatly needed at our Mission Station at Leh. It would enable our Missionaries to shelter weary and footsore pilgrims to Llassa—their Holy City—to care for their bodily needs and to point them the way to the Lord Jesus Christ.

For this "Inn"

£800 is Required Urgently

Will you share in this venture by gift and prayer?

What shall the harvest be in Western Canada ?

FIRST. The 1937 wheat harvest ?

It will need to be plentiful if farmers, nearly ruined by years of drought, are to find themselves able to liquidate their debts. In the meanwhile they, and their children, continue to suffer many hardships.

SECOND. The spiritual harvest ?

If we are not enabled to send out much larger grants-in-aid, the work of the Church must diminish. If Services are allowed to be discontinued, Missions to close, the work among children curtailed, life will be impoverished to the great detriment of a growing nation—our own countrymen Overseas.

HAVE WE A CASE ?

By Canon J. B. Lancelot.

A little book of six papers on Christian Evidence addressed to the plain man, with his difficulties and misunderstandings.

"We have enjoyed reading the book and admire the sweet reasonableness of the arguments and the courtesy with which they are advanced."
