SPEAKERS

Revd Philip Sowerbutts is vicar of Castle Church, Stafford and the archivist for the Keswick Convention. He has studied the history of the Keswick movement and interviewed many of those involved in its development during the 20th century. Philip will be speaking to us about the shifts in the theology of holiness in UK evangelicalism over the past 200 years, with lessons to learn for our own personal holiness and reflections on how the church needs to be teaching on this vital subject.

Revd Mark Lucas is vicar of St Botolph's Church, Barton Seagrave. He will be giving the conference Bible readings from Ephesians.

Seminar speakers

Martin Davie is the Theological Consultant to the Church of England Evangelical Council (CEEC) and author of Glorify God in Your Body (CEEC) and A Basic Christian Primer on Sex, Marriage and Family Life (Latimer Trust).

Ros Clarke is Associate Director of Church Society and was previously Online Pastor in the Diocese of Lichfield.

Andrew Atherstone is Research Fellow of the Latimer Trust and Tutor in Church History at Wycliffe Hall.

CONFERENCE

You don't often hear it talked about these days, but godliness is not only an essential expression of biblical faithfulness, but also an urgent foundation to effective witness. The Christian life has always been a struggle against "the world, the flesh and the devil", but the pressures of secularism in society, the absolutizing of self and the pseudo-spiritualities of Satan have never been greater.

This year's Fellowship of Word and Spirit conference will explore that theme of godliness, reflecting on how it has been understood by Christians in the past, as well as specific areas of application for today. We will have plenty of time to consider the implications for our expression of faith in the church and how we should address issues arising in our community.

The distinctive of this conference, is that we actually "confer"! That is, we foster a forum for debate, sharing ideas and encouraging one another in ministry. Each session is rooted in good teaching, but has substantial time for interaction, application and deepening our appreciation of it. We are committed to reformed theology and its application to the whole of life, but are ready to encourage and help each other wrestle with its challenges. We are a genuine fellowship, with plenty of time given for spiritual encouragement and prayer, for cultivating friendships old and new, and for resting from the usual frantic pace of ministry. We hope it will be a time of genuine spiritual and physical refreshment for both clergy and lay people.
