

Conference

Commitment

In a time of constantly moving goal-posts, pastoral uncertainty and doctrinal shifts, it is vital for us to know who and what we are truly committed to in our ministry.

This year's JAEC will focus on our commitments to Christ, to his truth and his people, and in that context, our commitment to the Church of England.

Seminars will give opportunity to consider this in the specific contexts of selection and ordination, as well as the implications for ministry spouses, for sabbath rest, and the particular challenges and opportunities for women in ministry.

Seminars

The seminars are designed to help us consider more of the practical implications of these issues:

- Oaths and ordinations Lee Gatiss
- Selection and training Ian Somasundram
- Ministry and Marriage Eleanor Hayden
- Women in the church Corinne Brixton and Lis Goddard
- Sabbaths and sabbaticals Ros Clarke

Each seminar is run twice – please indicate two preferences on your booking form.

About JAEC

This conference aims to help us be more effective as Anglican evangelicals, making the most of every opportunity to reach the lost for Jesus, build up the church through his word, and send workers into God's harvest field.

If you are in Anglican ministry, lay or ordained, and at any stage from exploring ministry through to a first incumbency, you are warmly invited to JAEC.

Spouses and families are also very welcome to attend, though we are unable to provide childcare during the sessions.

Fees

Standard fee £200

Discounted rate for non-ordained CS members: £160

If you would like to attend the conference as a non-residential guest, please contact the Church Society office.

Please note that bookings received after 13 August may not be accommodated and will be subject to an additional £10 administration fee. No bookings will be taken after 21 August.

Contact us for accommodation and fees for children.
